ITEM # AGENDA ITEM

- 1.0 Consideration of approving the Town Library Board Workshop agenda for May 17, 2022. Motion by Ms. McDermott-seconded by Ms. Hill to approve amended Agenda. Motion carried 3-0.
- 2.0 Comments from the public on any agenda item. None.
- 3.0 Discussion and finalization of proposed recommendation to Council. (Ref. pgs.: 1-8) Ms. Lawrence read the proposed bylaws to the members of the workshop. During the reading, attendees discussed the different requirements and recommended minor changes. At the ending of the reading, attendees agreed to place the proposed bylaw May 27, 2022, board meeting agenda.
- 4.0 Proposed Read & Feeds for 2022. Ms. Lawrence read the list of proposed books for the 2022 season: Nomadland: Surviving America in the Twenty-First Century by Jessica Bruder in June; The Book of Lost Names by Kristen Hamel in July; TBA by Ernest Hemingway in August; The Midnight Library by Matt Haig in September; TBA by Carol Perry in October and The Lincoln Highway by Amon Towles in November. A library lunch will be the December event.
- 5.0 Citizens' comments on any subject. Ms. Schear said 10 books shown overdue were on the shelf and that volunteers need to be reminded to complete the steps in the operating procedures and not rely on the sounds made during scanning. Also, a recent update has made a report on an patron's history no longer an option. Ms. Weyburne stated that all of the 2020 books on the New Releases shelf have been removed.
- 6.0 Board Members' comments on any subject. Ms. Hill stated she will be ordering large print books as well as regular print books in May. Ms. McDermott reminded the board that we will need to submit the Read and Feed attendees listing to the finance department as well as all fees collected.
- 7.0 Meeting adjournment at 11:52 a.m.
